"Trip to Chintown" Songs.

RICHMOND Music Co., 139 Salem avenue.

SOIREE FRANCAISE.

Au College de Jeunes Demoiselles Le 16

leme, Decembre.

The invitations have been sent out by the French class at the Virginia College for Young Ladies and those who have been fortunate enough to receive one are looking forward with pleasure to the event which occurs to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock in the college chapel.

A portion of the invitation is in French, as is that which gives the programme of the performance which is to be given and which has already been outlined in THE TIMES. The play to be presented is entitled "Pierre et Louise," a farce written expressly for her pupils by Madam Celine C. Early, the instructress in French, the explanation of which will be made by Miss Schermerhorn.

The first part of the programme comprises songs and recitations by members of the class.

Work of the Union Benevolent Society.

The Ladies' Union Benevolent Society, who have opened a commissary at 333 Salem avenue, are at present helping sixty-five indigent families, and calls for assistance are growing more frequent each day. The stock of provisions is nearly exhausted and the society are greatly in need of meal, sugar, coffee, rice, beans and meat. The society will gratefully receive any donations that may be left at the commissary and distribute the provisions carefully.

You will save money by attending the public auction sale of the stock of cloths of the K. & S. on Jefferson street.

ALREADY A GREAT SUCCESS.

is the Entertainment and Sale Given by the Elpaal Society.

The entertainment given last night at Brugh's old store room on Jefferson street, by the Elpaal Society of the First Baptist Church, was a decided success. The sale of dolls and fancy work surpassed the most sanguine expectations of the Elpaals and the refreshment tables were well patronized. At the concert given at 8 o'clock the following programme was carried out in an excellent manner:

Piano solo—Parantelle.....Miss Fellows
Song—"How Pleasant That Would Be"

Eureka waltz—Roanoke Banjo and Guitar Club
Song—"I Live and Love Thee"

Piano solo.....Miss Huggins
Song—"Afterwards".....Mr. Little

First cavotte.....Banjo and Guitar Club
Recitation—"Maiden's Martyr".....Mrs. Ninsinger

Solo—"Take Me, Jamie, Dear".....Miss Cutchin
Piano solo.....Mrs. D. W. Meadows

Dinner will be served again to day from 12 to 3 o'clock and the festival and sale of fancy work continued to night. Among the other attractions to night will be a pantomime entitled "Geneva."

DEPUTY CHEWNING AT WORK.

Four Men Arrested Yesterday for Alleged Illegal Sale of Liquor.

Deputy United States Marshal J. B. Chewning yesterday morning arrested James, Walker and Peter Shively and Arthur Sims about four miles from Salem on the charge of selling liquor without a license at Cave Spring on Wednesday.

The four men were brought to the city yesterday morning and locked up. An empty gallon jug, a half gallon bottle and a tin measure were found in their wagon. Sims claims that he was on his way to Salem and was allowed to place his valise in their wagon, and denies that he was in any way connected with the alleged sale of whiskey.

They will be examined by Commissioner Rhodes to day.

SMALL SUBSCRIPTIONS NEEDED.

These Must be Had if Roanoke is to Have Another Railroad.

The board of directors of the Roanoke Railway Construction Company are working assiduously soliciting subscriptions towards building the proposed new railroad with some success.

The work and discussions of the board of directors have developed and made prominent one fact, that the fate of the railroad depends wholly upon the action taken by the citizens of this city in subscription.

If the business men and property owners of Roanoke will contribute what they are able to the Construction Company the road will be built; if they do not the road will not be built.
